

PLEDGE Part -1

LET US PLEDGE OUR ALLEGIANCE TO THE HIGHER ENERGIES

Please read this pledge everyday and respect it for the rest of your lives.

(Print this pledge and paste it on the wall where every family member can see it.)

1. I am a God particle, a tiny part of God. God is omnipresent; therefore, I shall respect every animate or inanimate object around me. I shall respect myself as well.
2. God's qualities are being all loving, kind, helpful, compassionate and forgiving. I shall inculcate all these qualities within me.
3. I shall trust God to do things as he so wishes. I shall not demand/anticipate/command/request or suggest anything to God.
4. I shall happily accept anything that comes my way.
5. I shall believe that hurdles and disappointments are just stepping stones. God always has the best in store for me.
6. I shall handover my plans and my dreams of the future to God. I trust that he will take care of them. I shall wait patiently as his plan unfolds for my betterment.
7. As long as I have God's name on my lips, there shall be a hedge of protection and mercy surrounding me like a shield. I shall breathe in and breathe out God's name for the rest of my life.
8. I shall have utmost faith in God and this faith of mine shall open the doors for God to work in my life.
9. I shall remove fears of all sorts and welcome God's joy to engulf me at all times. God's love knows no limit. It has no boundaries. There is nothing I can do to make him love me, any more or any less. He loves me abundantly as I am a part of Him.

PLEDGE Part -2

1. Higher Energies are real. They are always walking amidst us. They are always watching what we do, so I shall not question their existence. This is the one doctrine that I shall believe blindly and with utmost reverence.
2. I shall not belittle myself or anyone who comes in touch with me in this lifetime. I shall always be ready to become God's medium to help mankind and the nature around me.
3. I shall not dwell in the past nor mull about the future. I shall not worry about my present either. I shall inculcate in me the art of forgiving. The more I forgive, the fewer will be the pieces of baggage that I will need to carry into the ethereal world.
4. My smile, praise, devotion, love, compassion, help and advice for others will be true and guileless.
5. I shall only use the material comforts that come my way and not get attached to any of them.
6. I shall keep my thoughts, words and actions under control.
7. I shall keep my family happy and healthy and shall not expect anything in return from them.
8. I shall grab every peaceful moment and utilize it towards my spiritual progress. I shall improve upon that peace internally, so that I can attune myself to the frequency of Higher Energies.
9. I shall always be thankful for each breath that I take.
